MR. M. R. NARAYANA PILLAI: May I know why there is no manure depot allotted for Tiruvalla taluk?

MR. K. R. NARAYANA AIYAR: There is no special reason.

MR. M. R. NARAYANA PILLAI: Has not this matter been brought to the notice of the Director of Agriculture before on the floor of this House?

MR. K. R. NARAYANA AIYAR: Yes, Sir. As soon as sufficient quantity of manure becomes available there will be no difficulty in opening a depot at Thiruvalla.

MR. M. R. NARAYANA PILLAI: Was not manure purchased for Rs. 50,000 this year and could not a portion of it be allotted to Tiruvalla?

MR. K. R. NARAYANA AIYAR: A large quantity of manure was purchased by the Tiruvalla taluk people also from the nearby depots.

MR. M. SIVATHANU PILLAI: May I know whether oil cakes could not be brought into the State without any licence?

MR. K. R. NARAYANA AIYAR: Originally they used to be brought into the State without any licence. But that is now prohibited.

MR. M. SIVATHANU PILLAI: May I know whether its transport could not be made possible now?

PRESIDENT: The policy followed by each Government has been to withdraw as much as possible from the other. Who started the race I do not know. This week the Travancore Government Gazette may publish a list of prohibitions and next week the Madras Government Gazette will publish a series of prohibitions from that Presidency, so that practically nothing goes from one State or Province to another.

Transfers made by the Divisional Inspector of Schools, Muvattupuzha.
